

THE PRESIDENT

Jerusalem, October 17, 2012

Dear Mr. President,

The National Day of the Republic of Hungary offers me the opportunity to extend to Your Excellency, on behalf of the people of Israel and myself, warm and sincere wishes for your personal well-being and for the continued progress and prosperity of your country and its people.

I was glad to meet with you during your visit in Israel on the occasion of the centenary of the birth of Raoul Wallenberg. I hope that your visit enabled you to become familiar with Israel and the challenges it faces. I well remember your strong words on the fight against antisemitism and I am confident that you, your government and your people will continue to act in this spirit.

Please accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
